

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

---

WALTER TRIPP,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CONNIE BISBEE et al.,

Defendants.

---

3:15-cv-00030-RCJ-VPC

ORDER

Plaintiff Walter Tripp is a convicted sex offender. He sued four members of the Nevada Board of Parole Commissioners in this Court, claiming that they violated his rights under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment via their alleged policy of automatically denying parole to sex offenders. The Court dismissed the Complaint with prejudice upon screening under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A both because Defendants were entitled to quasi-judicial immunity and because Plaintiff could not attack the lawfulness of his confinement via a civil action for damages but only via a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Both this Court and the Court of Appeals found the appeal to be frivolous and therefore denied in forma pauperis status on appeal. The Court of Appeals ordered Plaintiff to pay the full filing fee by October 7, 2015 if he wished to proceed anyway. Plaintiff has asked the Court to reconsider its dismissal and for leave to amend. To the extent it has jurisdiction to consider them, the Court denies the motions.

CONCLUSION

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion to Reconsider and the Motion to Amend (ECF Nos. 10, 11) are DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 9th day of November, 2015.
